

THIS IS A NOTABLE WEEK IN THE RANKS OF THE GOLF STARS

INTERNATIONAL TEAM MATCHES START TO-DAY

Scotch Foursomes at Thirty-Six Holes Between British and United States Players.

WITH the leading golfers of America and Great Britain on the scene, the first annual international team competition for the Walker Cup will be on its way at the National Links Club of America, Southampton, to-day. The first day will be devoted to Scotch foursomes at 36 holes and the singles and the same route to-morrow. This event, together with the first annual public links championship which starts to-day at Toledo and the opening of the national amateur championship at The Country Club, Brookline, Mass., on Saturday, make this week one of the most notable of the entire year.

Weather conditions yesterday were almost as bad as they were Saturday when a young cloudburst broke over the National Golf Links and caused the postponement of one semi-final match and the final round of the annual Southampton tournament. In spite of the steady downpour of rain, however, C. V. L. Hooman defeated W. B. Torrance in the last semi-final round played this morning and Cyril Tolley defeated Hooman 6 up and 5 to play in the final round.

The course Saturday afternoon resembled a series of lakes, and both fairways and greens were considerably flooded up when play began yesterday. In spite of the adverse weather conditions, however, Tolley managed to play some spectacular golf in defeating Hooman in the final round.

The outward half of the course here is a difficult part, but playing yesterday on a seamy course and with a cold rain seeping through his golfing toes, Tolley made that outward journey in the remarkable figures of 34. Except for a brief period of bad putting on the first green, he would have been off that first nine in the magical figures of 32. He was close to the green at this hole on a powerful smash from the tee, but after chipping within putting distance of the hole on his second shot he took 3 putts for a 5.

Better luck at ended his putting efforts on the next green when he got a "birdie" 3 with a fine drive, a good approach and a successful first putt. He played the next two holes in par and then proceeded to shoot three on the following four holes in "birdie" figures. He played the final hole of the outward journey in par and with 10 to make against Hooman's 11, found himself a up at the turn. There was no further necessity to strain for victory with such a commanding lead and Tolley let down a little on the final four holes of the match.

The cards follow:

Tolley.....5 3 4 4 3 4 3 5-34
Hooman.....5 4 4 5 5 5 5-41
Par.....4 4 4 5 5 5 5-37

The British team scheduled to play the English in the international matches for the team match championship of the world, showed up yesterday and got in a few practice shots during the morning before the worst of the rain set in. Bobby Jones and Nelson Whitney teamed up against Jessie Sweetser and Francis Ouimet in a foul ball match. Ouimet and Sweetser were returned the winners of this friendly match, chiefly because of the steadiness and accuracy of Ouimet's playing. Francis had an approximate 74 for the round and showed that he has golf in him now that will be hard to beat either in the Walker Cup matches or at Brookline, when the national amateur championship begins next week.

Sweetser was playing well enough, but his game lacked the smoothness he displayed in winning the metropolitan amateur championship at Lakewood. Bobby Jones made the course in 72, creditable figures but not up to the Jones standard. Bobby's game from the tee and through the fairway was good enough, but he was having considerable trouble with his putting.

Although the more or less well known dope indicates that the Americans are going to have something resembling a walkover in the team matches the dope has been known to receive lumpy wallop to the jaw just when everything seemed to be in a state of perfect peace. Some such catastrophe may occur to-morrow and Tuesday if two or three other members of the British team get any sudden inspiration to play spectacular golf such as Tolley received.

Tolley looks to be the strongest winning candidate on the British side. His tee shots are low and powerful, just the kind that are easiest to manage in any seaside game that may suddenly develop here. On his performances here he isn't the best putter in the world, but we doubt if there is a golfer in any bunkered nation endowed with a better or more efficient fighting temperament than Tolley has in the heat of a soul testing match play contest.

To-day's matches will all be four-ball affairs at 36 holes. The final matches to-morrow will be single affairs over the 36-hole route.

The line-up of the two teams follows: American Team—Jessie Sweetser, Francis Ouimet, Chick Evans, Bob Gardner, George S. Sargent, Max Marston and William C. Fownes. British Team—Cyril Tolley, Robert Harris, Roger Wethered, C. C. Aylmer, W. B. Torrance, C. V. L. Hooman, John Caven and Willie Mackenzie. Harrison Johnston and Rudolph Knepper are in reserve for the American team. Bernard Darwin is the lone British assigned to the reserve corps.

164 ENTRIES FOR NATIONAL AMATEUR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Despite its ruling, adopted this year, making only players of handicap four and under eligible to compete in this year's national amateur golf event, which will be played at the Country Club, Brookline, Mass., beginning on Saturday, the field for the preliminary qualifying round numbers 164, nearly as many as last year when the restriction was a stroke higher in the handicap rating. According to the list of pairings as announced yesterday, the 1922 tournament will doubtless be one of the greatest in history, for in addition to the best American talent the field will include the leading golfers of Canada and Great Britain.

The first pair off the tee on Saturday will be Chase of the Country Club and M. A. Green of Lanerch, who are scheduled to start at 8:20. Other pairs will leave at five-minute intervals far into the afternoon, the last being W. Scott of Canada and A. Pollock of England, scheduled to start at 3:15. Among some of the feature pairs to be found in the list are Chick Evans and W. C. Fownes Jr., scheduled to start at 9:40; Bob Gardner and Robert A. Hunter at 10:20; Bobby Jones and Roger Wethered at 11; Jess Gullford, the present titleholder, and W. I. Hunter, former British titleholder, and W. I. Hunter, former British amateur champion, at 11:20; and Cyril Tolley and Gardner White at 12:30.

To Test Income Tax Bureau's Right to Seize Private Records

Savannah, Ga., Officials Think Agent Is Only Hunting Bootlegging Evidence.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 28 (Copyright).—The right of the Income Tax Bureau of the Treasury to practically seize all financial records of individuals and their families probably will be tested in court. At a meeting of well known business men and merchants it was decided to send a legal representative to Washington to take the matter up with Secretary Mellon.

A representative of the department named Golding, has been in Savannah for some days. He demanded, in the name of the Government, that the local banks give him transcripts of the accounts of many prominent citizens. The banks were compelled to comply with this demand. Not only were the personal accounts of the men involved affected, but also those of their wives and kinfolk. Among those whose bank accounts are under scrutiny are heads of City Departments and prominent members of the bar.

There are between ninety and 100 cases, all told. What creates so much indignation is not that the Government is trying to collect back income taxes, but because of a circumstantial report that an organized effort is being made to connect up officials in some way with the bootlegging business. Recently, the Government has had certain well known men under surveillance and it now is intimated that it is hoped to broaden the inquiry.

There seems to be no redress this side of Washington, so at the meeting of the men affected it was decided that the matter would be taken up at the national capital with the idea of getting the proceeding straightened out or, at least limited to the matters permitted by law. What is objected to is a "fishing excursion."

Some of the parties involved already have filed a bond to secure a release of all claims that might later be made. Others refuse to do this, inasmuch as up to the present there has been no effort to tie up the bank accounts with court proceedings.

Former Representative Charles G. Edwards has been empowered to take the matter up with Washington. He will be aided by Former Senator Hoke Smith, while Representative J. W. Overstreet, of the Savannah District, was present at the meeting and promised any assistance he might be in a position to render.

Nothing that has been done by the Government in a long time has so stirred local banking and legal circles as the present proceedings. The investigating agent, Golding, is said to have been one of the officials sent to Germany in the vain effort to return Herdell to this country. He has referred all inquiries as to why he is taking this action to his superiors in Washington, but so far they have refused to enlighten the local men affected.

SEES BUILDING OF EMPIRE IN BONUS

Senator McNary Urges His Reclamation Amendment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Congress is given an opportunity to "do a grand thing in empire building, in connection with the soldiers' bonus," Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, declared today in the Senate in urging his reclamation amendment to that measure. Calling attention that in every war the Government had provided as aid land for veterans, he argued that there was no good reason for the abandonment of this national policy at this time.

"This amendment is not novel in any of its provisions," he said. "Its purpose and scope is to encourage the development of the agricultural resources of the United States, through Federal and State co-operation, giving preference in the matter of employment to those who have served in the military and naval forces of the United States in the World War, the Spanish-American War and the Philippine Insurrection."

Senator McNary quoted from reports of Secretary Fall and others showing that thousands of veterans desired land aid.

FRANCIS A. HARRINGTON, NOTED MASON DEAD.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 28.—Francis Alfred Harrington, seventy-four years old, a 33d degree Mason and Mayor of Worcester in 1890, 1891 and 1892, died suddenly of heart disease today at his home in this city. He was a State senator from 1891 to 1893, and was twenty years treasurer of the city of Worcester.

ARMOUR AND BUTCHART CAPTURE GOLF MATCH

In a four-ball match that was replete with the most brilliant golf seen this summer Tommy Armour and Cuthbert Butchart defeated Abe Mitchell and George Duncan, the famous British pros, by 1 up. The game was played over the double course of the Westchester Hillmore Country Club, the members of which have seen yesterday's winners come out victorious four times this summer over the leading stars in the game.

Cross Hits Shoulder; Siegel Boat Stopped.

Marty Cross injured his left shoulder in his bout with Nate Siegel at the Queensboro Stadium Saturday night and the contest was stopped in the fourth round. Dr. John F. Daly, the club's physician, examined Cross after the bout and diagnosed the injury as a dislocation. Until the accident honors were about even.

AMERICAN WOMAN HELD BY THE MUNICH POLICE.

MUNICH, Aug. 28.—The Neueste Nachrichten reports that an American woman named Katharina Gray, thirty-seven years, has been arrested here. The newspaper says she had been sought by the police of Brussels for alleged knowledge of swindling operations involving jewelry worth 2,500,000 Belgian francs.

RAIN MAY CAUSE POSTPONEMENT OF TO-DAY'S MATCH

Eastcott to Meet Flamingo Polo Team if Field Is in Condition.

RUMSON, N. J., Aug. 28.—Rain fell in such torrents yesterday that it seems inevitable that to-day's match in the international polo trophy for the H. L. Herbert memorial trophy at the Rumson Country Club will have to be postponed until to-morrow morning. A definite decision will not be made until game time.

The match scheduled for to-day again has an international flavor. It brings together the Anglo-American Eastcott team and the Flamingo four, the former rated as a 30 goal team and the latter only a 21 goal combination. Still, nine goals makes a heavy handicap in polo as fast as it is being played here. The team that beats Earl Hopping's Eastcott team in the handicap tournament will have to play at top speed. Hopping, who will be seen at number 2, is a daring rider and hard hitter, ranked as a nine goal player. Major Vivien Lockett and Major F. B. Hurdale, the British members of the team, who will play back and number 3, are rated as nine and eight goals respectively. Eastcott at number 1, is rated at four.

The Flamingo team will play in the following order: J. C. Cooley at No. 1, a five-goal player; Harry East at No. 2, handicapped at seven; B. K. Gattina at the pivot position, ranked at five, and F. H. Prince, the back, at four goals. Cooley is a veteran, but his teammates are still lacking somewhat in experience. Interest in the matches at Rumson and those foreseen at Philadelphia and Meadow Brook, constituting a six weeks' campaign for the hardest kind of polo, had been heightened by the unexpected defeat of the Argentine four Saturday by Harriman's Orange County players.
